Hi Everyone,

Fish Philosopher of the Week: Is Matthew Olive-Bale for choosing the right attitude and fantastic effort in story writing.

Write 4 Fun: Students have been busy in the classroom developing their writing skills. The students are currently preparing an entry for the competition Write 4 fun. We wish them all good luck.

Easter Hat Parade: Wednesday 1st April - We will be holding our Easter Hat Parade followed by our Easter Egg Hunt on the last Wednesday of this term. We would like to invite all pre-school children in the district to join us once again and would like to invite the families, friends and community to join us for the hat parade followed by morning tea. All children are asked to make an Easter Hat at home for the Easter Parade. We will begin the morning at 9.45am and finish approximately 10.45am. Any community members who would like to attend and need transport, please contact the school and we will organise someone to pick you up. We hope you can join us.

Milo Cricket: Unfortunately the program finished today. The children have all thoroughly enjoyed the Milo Cricket program and have all improved their cricketing skills. We now look forward to our tennis coaching with Dave Ridland next term.

Uniform: As Milo Cricket has finished we now go back to our normal routine with sport on Fridays. Next Thursday students are required to wear their normal uniform.

Bookclub: Correction from last week. You probably worked it out but the due date for Book Club was today, Thursday 26th March. Sorry for any confusion caused.

Happy Birthday: The Students, Staff and P & C would like to wish Mrs. Coles a happy birthday for this Saturday.

Easter Colouring In Competition: The students have been given a sheet to colour in for the Easter Markets Colouring Competition. The sheets should be returned to Helen at the shop by next Thursday 2nd April for judging. Winners announced at the Markets. Good Luck!

Regards,

Jo Coles
Acting Principal
