Hi Everyone,

Fish Philosopher of the Week: Is Layne Carson for continued effort with all the principles of the Fish Philosophy and a considerate and helpful attitude to the new Kinders.

Swimming Lessons: Monday 15th - Friday 19th February. This week the children have been travelling in to Crookwell Pool each day for their annual swim lessons. The children have two 3/4 hr. lesson for the five days with swim teachers Mr. Leighton-Daly and Ms. Jo Price. We have been very fortunate with the weather this year making it much more enjoyable for everyone. The teachers have been thrilled with the enthusiasm of the children.

Goulburn/Crookwell District PSSA Swimming Carnival: Tuesday 23rd February. I am very proud to announce that we have two students who have qualified at last weeks Small Schools Swimming Carnival to represent our school at the Goulburn/Crookwell District PSSA Swim Carnival in Goulburn next week. Lucy gained first place in 10yrs 50m Freestyle, 50m Breaststroke, 50m Butterfly, 100m Freestyle and placed second in the 50mBackstroke. Makayla gained first place in the 8yrs. 50m Freestyle. Lucy and Makayla have qualified in these events for next week. I would also like to mention that Jacob gained second in the 9yrs. 50m Freestyle but unfortunately missed out on selection on times. We are very proud of Jacob’s effort on the day. We wish the girls good luck!

P & C/AGM Meeting: Wednesday 24th February at 1.30pm. The AGM will be followed by a General Meeting. All welcome!

Regards,
Jo Coles,
Principal
