Hi Everyone,

Fish Philosopher of the Week: Is Malakai Halligan for lovely manners, intent listening and following instructions and for showing a positive attitude in the classroom and playground.

Goulburn/Crookwell District PSSA Swimming Carnival: Congratulations to Lucy and Makayla who represented our school in Goulburn on Tuesday. Lucy gained 1st in her heat in backstroke, 2nd in her heat in breaststroke, 3rd in her heat in 50m butterfly. Makayla gained 4th place in her heat in 50m freestyle. We are very proud of your efforts. Well done girls.

Parent Only Meeting: Tuesday 8th March at 9.00am. I have requested a meeting with parents and hope that each family may have a representative attend.

Small Schools Athletics Carnival: Wednesday 16th March. We will be travelling to Crookwell to compete in the Small Schools Athletics Carnival. The day will begin with the Cross Country at 9.00am (time to be confirmed). Infant children will be participating in their age race and other events followed by novelty events organised by myself and the Primary students will be participating in the PSSA events. Transport will be the responsibility of parents. Please find attached a permission note with details and a lunch order form for students. Please return by Tuesday 8th March.

Milo Cricket: Friday 26th February. Will commence this Friday at school from 9.00am until 10.00am. Garry Mortimer from Goulburn will be travelling out this Friday and next Friday to instruct our students in Milo Cricket. There will be two more one hour sessions to be advised over the following weeks. Four sessions in all. Students are to wear their sports uniform as usual.

Milo Cricket Small Schools Cup: Monday 21st March. We will be competing in a Milo Cricket Cup at Todkill Park in Crookwell. This will include all students with a modified game for the Kinders to Year 3. Transport will be the responsibility of parents. Arrive 9.45am for 10.15am start. Finish at 2.00pm.

School Vegetable Garden: I hope the children enjoyed their corn sent home on Tuesday from their school garden. They have been enjoying the cherry tomatoes and cucumbers for the last few weeks which we have been having for crunch and sip as well as recess after they finish their morning tea. Thank you to David for all his hard work in maintaining the garden for us.

Regards,

Jo Coles,
Principal
